Region 1 B-Rated Show, licensed by USA Working Equitation (USAWE)
License Number: 22-055(P) 22-055-C(P)

Show Information

Join us for our Spring event in Wenatchee, WA with Senior (S) judge Rebecca Algar!

Our USAWE licensed show will be followed by Ease of Handling schooling rounds for those who are new to the sport or looking for extra practice. Schooling rounds will not be placed or ribboned, but you do have the opportunity to get feedback from the judge.

We will have a just for fun lead-line Ease of Handling class with prizes for kiddos!

Optionally, after the 3 Phases and schooling rounds, you may participate in an official USAWE cattle trial followed by a Try-a-Trial schooling cattle trial open to anyone.

The show grounds at the Appleatchee Riders Association are sunny and park-like with comfortable stabling and camping available on site. We will be showing outdoors in their lower "roping" arena. Weather in Wenatchee is typically in the low 70's in May with over 300 days of sunshine a year!

Competition Requirements

This show will be conducted and judged in accordance with the United States Rules for Working Equitation, Revision 5.1, dated 1 December 2021. The rules can be found at the following site: <https://usawe.org/rules>. It is the competitor's responsibility to read and understand the rules prior to the competition.

All competitors holding a membership with USAWE may compete. Non-members are allowed to compete in B-rated shows for a $20 non-member fee. Non-members can use a one-time voucher in place of the non-member fee.

Apply for the voucher online at: <https://forms.gle/U68aZ2yTqNNBSvRA7>

Competitors interested in being eligible for lifetime medal awards and year-end awards must be USAWE members.

Membership application: <https://usawe.org/membership/>:

All competing horses must be recorded with USAWE in advance of the show. A one-time fee of $20 per horse includes lifetime performance tracking.

Horse recording form: <https://usawe.org/membership/>:

A single horse and rider team is allowed to show in only one level. A horse may be entered twice in a competition if ridden by two different riders and in different levels. Exception: Two youth can share the same horse if competing in Level 1. See Rulebook, Section 1.7.

Riders must be correctly attired and horses properly presented in accordance with the U.S. Rules for Working Equitation. Show Management may, at its discretion, bar any person or horse from entering the arena if not suitably presented.

Area Resources and Grounds Rules:

<http://appleatcheeriders.com/about-us/resources/>

All Show Classes will be held in the Roping Arena

150' x 268' outdoors, lighted, footing groomed daily. No access for schooling or warm-up.

Warm-up will be in the Middle Arena, directly above the Roping Arena

*121' x 227' located directly above the Roping Arena. Available for use Friday - Sunday.**

*Please note, per USAWE rules, during show hours “The paddock (warm-up arena) is an area designated as a warm-up zone in which riders prepare their horses before entering the arena and in which riders who have competed in a trial can cool down and/or relax their horses.

Competitors not on horseback are forbidden from remaining in the Paddock. The temporary or extended presence of any persons inside the paddock other than the competitors, trainers, or handlers of the horses being prepared, is also forbidden.”

Therefore, only those who are warming up or cooling down for their ride should be in the Middle Arena, warm-up arena, with the exception of any time Friday or after the last show rider of the day has completed their ride, at which times anyone may use the Middle Arena as they see fit.

Stabling Details

Friday-Sunday stalls are included with your entry. Extra night available for Monday departure at $30/horse. Locals or Appleatchee boarders who do not need stalls can contact us for a discounted entry fee.

It is not required to clean or strip your stall upon departure. The venue will take care of it for you! Please note, this is different from our other show at the Washington State Horse Park, which requires stalls to be stripped on departure.

One bale of shavings will be included with your stall. Additional bales may be purchased on-site from the show secretary for $10/bale. It is permitted to bring your own bedding, but straw is not allowed.

Tack stalls available for $100.

Camping is available on-site with power and water hook ups for $30/night or dry camping for $10/night. Please make camping reservations with the show secretary or on your entry form prior to arriving.
